

Notice and Disclaimer of Liability Concerning Recommended Guidelines and Procedures

BLRBAC brings together volunteers from operating companies, manufacturers and insurance companies representing varied viewpoints and interests to achieve consensus on Guidelines and Recommended Practices for the safe operation of recovery boilers. While BLRBAC facilitates this process, it does not independently test, evaluate or verify the accuracy of any information or the soundness of any judgments contained in its Recommended Guidelines and Procedures.

BLRBAC disclaims liability for any personal injury, property or other damages of any nature whatsoever, whether special, indirect, consequential or compensatory, directly or indirectly resulting from the publication, use of, or reliance on BLRBAC Guidelines and Recommended Practices. BLRBAC also makes no guaranty or warranty as to the accuracy or completeness of any information published herein.

In issuing and making this document available, BLRBAC is not undertaking to render professional or other services of or on behalf of any person or entity. Nor is BLRBAC undertaking to perform any duty owed by any person or entity to someone else. Anyone using BLRBAC Guidelines and Recommended Practices should rely on his or her own independent judgment or, as appropriate, seek the advice of a competent professional in determining the exercise of reasonable care in any given circumstance.

Users of BLRBAC Guidelines and Recommended Practices should consult applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations relating to the safe manufacture and operation of recovery boilers. BLRBAC does not, by the publication of its Guidelines and Recommended Practices intend to urge action that is not in compliance with applicable laws, and its publications may not be construed as doing so.
